Course Description
This course offers an introduction to the history of Asian Americans from the mid-nineteenth century to the present. Drawing from a range of interdisciplinary approaches and sources, we will explore the importance of the Asian American experience to U.S. history while also giving due consideration to the global and international forces that shaped it. In doing so, we will probe the varied experiences of people identified as “Asian Americans,” examining what it has meant to be Asian American and how it has changed over time. Students will use the experience of Asian Americans as a lens to investigate broader themes including migration, diaspora, race, labor, citizenship, community formation, war, empire, nation, and transnationalism.

Learning Objectives
- Acquire a basic knowledge of Asian American history from the mid-nineteenth century to the present including the key people, events, and ideas that have shaped this history.
- Develop critical reading skills by learning how to evaluate scholarly arguments and the evidence and reasoning behind them.
- Learn to identify and distinguish between primary and secondary sources.
- Learn historical methods to interpret primary sources.

Attendance
Attendance is mandatory. Two unexcused absences lower your final grade by one letter grade. Any student who misses four or more sessions through any combination of excused and unexcused absences will not earn credit in this class. Such students should withdraw to avoid getting an F.

Class absence may be excused in case of illness requiring medical attention, curricular or extracurricular activities approved by the faculty, personal obligations claimed by the student and recognized as valid, recognized religious holidays, and severe inclement weather causing dangerous traveling conditions. All other absences including those due to a job or an interview will NOT be excused. For further detail on university regulations on class attendance see http://catalogs.rutgers.edu/generated/nwk-ug_0608/index.html

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism Policy
All written work submitted by students should be their own. Students need to be careful about distinguishing their own ideas and writings from other sources. Plagiarism includes quoting or paraphrasing from another source without properly citing it. Plagiarism is grounds for automatically failing the course. Further details can be found here http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/policy-on-academic-integrity.

All students are required to sign the Rutgers Honor Code Pledge. To receive credit, every major assignment must have your signature under the following phrase: “On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this examination / assignment.

Electronic Device Policy
The use of portable electronic devices such as cellphones and tablets are strictly prohibited during class hours. Laptops are also prohibited (you can request an exemption for laptop use but only in the most compelling circumstances will I allow it). Cellphones should be turned off prior to class. Violations will result in a deduction in your participation grade.

Students with Disabilities
Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus’s disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form. For more information please contact Kate Torres at (973) 353-5375 or in the Office of Disability Services in the Paul Robeson Campus Center, in suite 219 or by contacting odsnewark@rutgers.edu.
