Office Hours: Mon. and Wed. 9:45am-10:15am and by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND LEARNING OUTCOMES:

This course addresses the origins and history of the Greek people from their emergence in the early Bronze Age down to the Hellenistic period (ca. 1700 BCE – 200 BCE). Ancient Greek history certainly continues beyond this, but it melds with Roman history and is covered in Rutgers-Newark’s “Roman Civilization” course. Special attention will be paid to ancient Greek political and military history; social aspects of Greek society (slavery, sexuality, ethnic identity, democracy and various forms of government); Greek art and architecture, literary culture and philosophy. We will also explore modern perceptions and uses of ancient Greek culture.

Readings from ancient sources in translation include formal history (Herodotus; Thucydides; Xenophon), political manifesto (Xenophon; Demosthenes), drama (Sophocles; Euripides; Aristophanes), and philosophy (Plato). Each week students will read some primary source material along with modern scholarship supplementing it. Students will learn to read primary sources closely and analyze them critically in their historical context. We shall also consult a number of digital images and videos throughout the course, including several classes devoted to ancient Greek art and architecture.

STUDENT REQUIREMENTS:

Grades will be assigned as a percentage. My grade scale is as follows: A = 100% to 92%; B+ = 91% to 87%; B = 86% to 81%; C+ = 80% to 76%; C = 75% to 70%; D = 69% to 60%; F = 59% and below.

Essay Quizzes: 30%
Examinations: 60%
In Class Discussion: 10%
Extra-Credit Geography Quiz: special

1. There will be four essay quizzes. They will target the ancient source reading material, and you will receive instructions about what to expect from them about a week before each quiz. You may not make up the quizzes, but I shall drop the lowest of the 4 grades you receive.

2. Students will take two examinations, a midterm and a final exam. They will consist of identifications (3 to 5 sentences on a person/place/date, etc.) and essays.

3. From time to time at the end of class, we shall set aside some time for in-class discussion of the material covered that day. There will also be several days in the semester devoted solely to the discussion of primary sources assigned for reading (these are noted in the syllabus). I shall grade you on the frequency and quality of your participation in discussion, as well as for your classroom behavior, for this aspect of your grade.

4. There will be an extra-credit geography quiz early in the semester. This optional quiz is intended to help you understand the history of the period better by making sure you know where the cities, regions, bodies of water, etc., are in the ancient Mediterranean world. Your quiz can potentially give you a higher score on the midterm examination. A score of 100% will give +4% on the exam, 90-99% will give +3%, 80-89% will give +2% and 70-79% will give +1%. A list of sites to be identified for the quiz is on the last page of this syllabus.

OTHER FACTORS AFFECTING YOUR GRADE:

Attendance: Since class attendance and participation is essential to this course—given that much of the material you will be responsible for will only come from lectures, visual presentations and in-class discussion—absences should be kept to a minimum. Accordingly, the maximum number of unexcused absences allowed is two, beyond which there will be a grade penalty of -3% of the total grade for the course for each day past two. As per the policy of the Newark College of Arts and Sciences, any student who misses more than eight courses, excused or not, will receive a “no grade” for their work in the class. There will also be a grade penalty for persistent lateness. If you must miss a class for religious reasons, please inform me within 2 weeks of the class to obtain an excused absence.

Use of unapproved electronic devices is prohibited during class (this includes computers, phones, pads, etc.). If I see you using such a device during class, I will mark you as absent for the day.

Policy on Academic Integrity: No act of academic dishonesty will be tolerated in this course. All students should read the academic integrity policy on the course’s Blackboard site under “Academic Integrity.”

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

Rutgers welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines. If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with me and discuss the accommodations with me as early in the course as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS website at: https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/registration-form. For more information please contact Kate Torres at 973.353.5375 or in the Office of Disability Services in Robeson Campus Center 219 or by contacting odsnewark@rutgers.edu.
COURSE MATERIALS: all on Blackboard

This course is listed on Blackboard on the Rutgers-Newark website. Through Blackboard, you will be able to access a copy of the syllabus, Powerpoints used in presentations for the course, quiz study questions, and all the course readings. I will also post announcements regarding the course from time to time there. The syllabus will also have links to art history videos on YouTube via khanacademy.org.
