This course gives students an overview of the major events and developments in European history, from ancient times to roughly 1700. In this class, students will regularly practice their writing skills with written assignments and a final paper, and will have many opportunities to express their ideas verbally in class discussions. In both the written assignments and the class discussions, students will develop their analytical skills by identifying the course readings’ main theses, supporting arguments, evidence, assumptions, and rhetorical strategies.

Course Requirements:
1. Participation in class discussion. Students will be expected to read the assigned texts before the class (by date indicated on the syllabus). On days that are marked especially for discussion you will be expected to have carefully read all the primary source documents and be ready to discuss them.
2. Analysis of Primary Source Documents. Three assignments spread out throughout the semester, 2-3 pages each.
3. Take Home Midterm, 5-6 pages (typed and double-spaced), due October 18th by midnight.
4. Take Home Final Exam, 5-6 pages (typed and double-spaced), due December 22nd, by noon.

Grading:
In-class participation: 10%
Primary source Analysis: 30% (10% each)
Take Home Midterm Exam: 30%
Take Home Final Exam: 30%

Required Books:
- The books are available at the University Book Store, and also from online retailers.

Attendance policy:
Attendance is required. If you miss more than four classes, your grade will be lowered by a third of a grade (from B+ to B, for example). If you miss more than six classes, your grade will be lowered by one full grade (B+ to C+, for example). Any student who misses eight or more sessions through any combination of excused and unexcused absences will not earn credit in this class. Such students should withdraw from the class.

Late papers and exams:
Papers and exams are due on the dates announced in class or indicated below. Unless discussed with me IN ADVANCE, late assignments will have their grades lowered.

Policy on Academic Integrity (Cheating and Plagiarism):
Rutgers University treats cheating and plagiarism as serious offenses. The standard minimum penalties for students who cheat or plagiarize include failure of the course, disciplinary probation, and a formal warning that further cheating will be grounds for expulsion from the University. All students are required to sign the Rutgers Honor Code Pledge. To receive credit, every assignment must have your signature under the following phrase: “On my honor, I have neither received nor given any unauthorized assistance on this examination / assignment.”

Course Website
From time to time, I will also post additional materials (images that we discuss in class, texts that I discuss in lectures which are not in the textbooks, etc.) If there are any changes to the syllabus, I will announce these in class and then post them on the website. I will also use the electronic roster to send e-mails to all students, if there are announcements to be made.
